RULES & REGULATIONS

1. All entries must be bona fide property of the Exhibitor.
 - a. entries to the show are accepted subject to the rules and regulations and by-laws of the Society and of the Show.
 - b. the entrant agrees to be bound by those rules and regulations and by-laws.
 - c. the entrant also agrees to abide by all decisions made by the Society, by the Group with which it is affiliated or by VASA pursuant to those rules and regulations and by-laws, and
 - d. no decision so made shall be called into question by the entrant before any court or other body (whether or not of a similar nature to a court) whatsoever.
2. For horses ages, see respective classes.
3. Each horse must have a good halter and its exhibitor must produce its entry ticket on demand to the show official
4. No judge shall officiate in any section in which he is exhibiting.
5. The judges may award a second or third prize instead of a first, or may withhold a prize altogether where the exhibit is considered unworthy.
6. Where the judge may think any stock worthy of a prize and there is none offered, their awards shall be taken as recommendation for the committee's consideration.
7. An appeal against the decision of the judges will not be entertained unless a protest is made to the stewards in charge of the particular section within 15 minutes after the decision of the Judge, and a deposit of $20 is lodged with the Secretary, which will be forfeited if the committee considers it frivolous.
8. All stock must be paraded where required by the Stewards.
9. The committee shall have the power to require that statutory Declarations be made regarding any animal which they have reason to suppose is being exhibited contrary to the rules connected with this exhibition.
10. All horses exhibited at this show may be subject to an examination by Stewards, and should the state of dentition indicate that any animal that is too old for the section in which it is entered, the Stewards, shall have the powers to disqualify such animals, and shall report the circumstances to the committee at its ensuing monthly meeting. The exhibitor may be disqualified from again competing at Association's Shows, and his name, if he be a member, struck from the roll.
11. Any infringement of the above rules may disqualify an exhibitor.
12. The Association will not hold itself responsible for exhibits, but every care will be taken.
13. In awarding the Championship, unless stated, the first prize winner of the relative sex in each class of the relative subsection shall be eligible to compete. In awarding the Reserve Championship, unless otherwise stated, the first prize winner of the relative sex in each class of the relative subsection, other than the exhibit to which the championship has been awarded, shall be eligible to compete together with the second prize winner in the class in which the Champion was awarded first prize.
14. Each competitor shall not hold the Association and its members indemnified from any loss or damage sustained by or by reason of his or her exhibits. All riders in hunting, riding and jumping events must be insured by the exhibitor.
15. Members will be required to pay a fee for every entry except where otherwise stated.
16. The privilege of distributing Trade List Advertisements or other documents is restricted exclusively to exhibitors at their respective stands.
17. Any exhibitor or Attendant destroying or refusing to attach the prize card to an exhibit after being awarded, will have the prize forfeited and may be debarred from again exhibiting, and his name, if he is a member, struck off the roll. Any person insulting or interfering with the judges during the show will be subject to removal from the grounds, and the prize, if any may be awarded, forfeited.
18. In case of dispute as to construction or interpretation of these regulations, or the meaning of anything in the prize list, the same shall be determined by the committee of the association, whose decision shall be final.
19. The Association may, in its absolute discretion, make reciprocal arrangements with anybody, for the recognition or enforcement of each other punishments.
20. All riders must wear protective headgear to the current Australian, European or American standard.

ALL ENTRY FEES MUST BE PAID IN ADVANCE OR AT THE TIME OF ENTRY.

All exhibits must be registered with respective breed societies
